

JACK POWELL, ST. LOUIS PITCHER, LESS.
POPULAR WITH FANS THAN GEO. STOVALL

Jack Powell.

Jack Powell, the veteran pitcher, is about as unpopular with the St. Louis American league fans as George Stovall is popular. Unless old Jack delivers the goods in wholesale packages, it is feared that he is done for in St. Louis.

In a recent game with Cleveland, with the score tied in the eighth, with the Naps at bat, one down and Lajole on third, Powell's temper got the better of him and he uncorked a wild pitch. Larry came in with the winning run. Then Powell offered harsh words of advice to his teammates, especially Catcher Kritchell, who let the pitch get past him. The Missourians were mad. "Take him out," they yelled. But Manager Wallace did not heed their pleas.

Wash your clothes with

GOLD DUST

Good soap washes clothes well—if you use enough elbow grease; but Gold Dust washes them more thoroughly—and with little or no rubbing. Gold Dust saves half your time, and spares your poor back.

Another great advantage of Gold Dust—use any kind of water you like. Gold Dust softens the hardest water, and makes it soft as rain water.

Gold Dust is just a vegetable-oil soap in powdered form, with other cleansing ingredients added to make it work more thoroughly and quickly than soap ever can.

Just try Gold Dust next wash-day, and see how much time you save.

Gold Dust is sold in 50 size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.
